Key points include:

- An offer must be clear, definite, and communicated.
- Acceptance must be unequivocal and communicated to the offeror.
- The "mirror image" rule and its exceptions.
- The postal rule, which states that acceptance is effective upon posting, not receipt.

Consideration

Consideration is often described as the price paid for the promise, serving as a necessary element for the enforceability of a contract. Volume 1 delves into:

- The sufficiency and adequacy of consideration.

- The rule that consideration must move from the promisee.
- Cases illustrating the doctrine's application and limitations, such as Currie v Misa and Blackburn v Blackhurst.

Intention to Create Legal Relations

The volume emphasizes the importance of intention in distinguishing enforceable agreements from informal arrangements.

- Presumptions are made that commercial agreements are intended to be legal, whereas domestic agreements are not.
- These presumptions can be rebutted with evidence to the contrary.
